There are No Tags but an adjustment at the end of the 4th repetition (see the note 1).
Intro: 32 counts

Note 1: At both versions there is a 1 count less at the 4th repetition, just 31 counts. This is due to the female singer starts 1 count before the end of the 4th repetition phrase. It could be seen as a re-start but we prefer to name it as "an adjustment". Count 32 coincide with a hold so try to "adjust" it omitting that "hold" and start from the top with the "Cross toe strut" coinciding with the first word of the female Singer: "Si iiiiiii..."

Note 2: There's a four counts bridge at the song after the 7th repetition but we have preferred not to add a tag, just go on until the end.
