REPEAT

BONUS OPTION: "The Line Dance Sway" can be danced with a partner along one wall of this two wall line dance. Just putting this info out there for those interested in trying a hybrid line/partner dance. My "Retirees atPlay" YouTube channel has a demo video of my spouse and I dancing this line dance "hybrid" style.

Choreographer's Note:

I do not know who choreographed the classic dance "Sway" that is a circle dance done with a partner. I would gladly cite the choreographer if I did. Via the website CopperKnob.co.uk the choreographer for the round dance "Sway" is listed as "unknown".

The choreography for "The Line Dance Sway" has modified this original circle dance to make it a two wall, sixteen count line dance.
