This dance was not choreographed to any particular song it can be used for many different tracks, great floor split to get more dancers on the floor. Note in the music suggestion a couple of songs could have restarts but I found if you take out the restarts they still work great with the songs for those that are struggling with restarts but still want to dance, also noted are a couple that will end facing the front wall with out changing the steps at all...Bonus, yay!

Music Suggestions:

Mr Lonely by Midland(ends facing front, no potential restarts)

All Shook Up by Billie Joel (ends facing 9:00, no potential restarts)

AA by Walker Hayes (slower tempo, no potential restarts)

BFE by Kane Brown(ends facing front, dance thru any potential restarts)

Don't Rock the Jukebox by Alan Jackson (ends facing front, no potential restarts)

My Next Broken Heart by Brooks & Dunn (ends facing 3:00, no potential restarts,)
