TAG

The tag is simply the 3rd count of 8 without the 2 walks forward

There is 16 counts towards the end of the dance where there is no music and it appears that the song has ended. He says, "There's a few old cowboy bones...". Instead of just standing there, pretend that you are smoking a cigarette, drinking a soda, chatting with a neighbor, something so that it doesn't look as though you are just standing there. After 16 counts the music will begin again for about 16 more counts, start at the beginning and dance until there is no music
