Note from Theresa: I taught high school for a long time. In the Fall and Spring, male students would come to me and say, "I want to ask (insert name here) to the Homecoming/Prom, but I don't know how to dance." I taught them this dance with a variety of songs with varying tempos. I suggested that they start by holding hands with their partner, so that she could follow him. The pronouns in this are those used at the time I taught my students to dance.
