*Variation to make the last 8 counts even sexier: as you are grinding to the right & hold, bring your right arm up, then bring your left arm up as you grind to the right. Then as you are doing the hip circles, you can move your hands across your body as you bring them back down.

REPEAT

The Restart will come after the first 8 counts of wall 4.

Note: This happens after you do the "Behind, side, cross" step on the back wall. On a normal wall, that move is making movement to the right as you go into that full turn; however, on this restart wall, be sure to keep your weight a bit more centered/grounded so as to keep your balance for starting over into the ¼ turn jazz box.
