This is just an easy little dance that I'm sure most dancers will be able to manage. It's not for the high flyers of course, but there are many people out there who want to do dances that don't tax their joints or their brains.... Like me for instance! (-:

I mean, I can still mix it with the high flyers.. and sometimes have to just to prove that I can still do it..... but gees, it does hurt!!
I find it much better to stick to easier dances these days and judging by the emails I receive, I am not the only one who feels like that.....

See you on the floor sometime.... Jan
